

January 2011
San Jose del Cabo
Author: RY Stevens

NEWSLETTER - GrandMayan.net & GrandLuxeResidence.com - Cabo

Happy New Year (Feliz Año Nuevo) and thank you for your continued Grand Mayan and Grand Luxxe reservation business and especially for your continued travel to Mexico.

We spent the week after Christmas at the Grand Mayan in San Jose del Cabo. The weather was beautiful with temperatures in the 70's. As usual we adventured to several places and more importantly, for us anyway, ate at some great restaurants. Winter in Cabo is also a great time for the whale watchers.

Tips and Lists – Please email us at, diane@grandmayan.net to request any of our lists: 1) Things To Take With You When Traveling to Mexico; 2) Tips For Enjoying Mexico; 3) Services if You are Sick or Injured in Mexico; 4) More Restaurant Reviews.

Beautiful flora at the Todos Santos Inn. Todos Santos, Baja California Sur, Mexico

Historic Todos Santos is an easy hour's drive north on the scenic Pacific coast highway from Cabo San Lucas. A palm-fringed oasis brimming with creative souls, this gentle sanctuary has captivated many with its peaceful, laid-back flavor. Set back from the Pacific and nestled in the towering Sierra de la Laguna mountains, this small, intimate town boasts cozy restaurants, starry nights and cooler summer weather than Los Cabos. Surf Daddies ...don't forget to visit Cerritos Beach along the way. A true gem of a Pacific surf and swim beach to hangout.

Your Safety and Travel in Mexico

Despite growing concern over recent reports of violence and crime in México's northern border towns, travel destinations such as Nuevo Vallarta, Riviera Maya, Cabo San Lucas and San José del Cabo, collectively known as Los Cabos, remain sound choices when planning a family vacation or romantic getaway. Located a thousand miles away from Tijuana, where many of the reported incidents have taken place, and with an entire sea between it and mainland México, Los Cabos offers a safe retreat, where travelers can indulge in delicious and diverse cuisine, explore myriad beaches, and take part in a number of exhilarating activities.

The most charming part of Mexico is its wonderful people. In Cabo a group of concerned citizens and business owners has formed an organization to make the tourist experience the best it can be. Cabo Angels will answer any questions and address any complaints. 624-188-4455 – info@caboangels.com.

Restaurants

Ensalada – located an easy walk 2 blocks north of the Grand Mayan resort and owned by our friend Jim Basher. We eat here most mornings with the Mexican Eggs breakfast being our favorite. Ask for the Habanero sauce if you like a little spice. They also serve a great salad and are open for both lunch and dinner during the week. Get there early if you want one of their special Sweet Rolls because they go fast.

Tropicana – located just a few more blocks walk toward downtown San Jose this restaurant specializes in seafood. We like the raw fish appetizers as well the sea bass offerings cooked several ways. Cooked In a paper bag is our favorite. All fresh caught from the Sea.

La Dolce – also downtown, will let you get your Italian on. The pizza is great and the salads filling.

This email newsletter is brought to you as a service of grandmayan.net and grandluxxeresidence.com. If you no longer wish to receive any email from us please notify me: diane@grandmayan.net or 602-791-1474 Gracias